CITIZEN'S FORUM

FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT IN CANADA

Saturday, April 18, 2009. 9:00 AM-5:00PM

Hilton Garden Inn, Oakville/Mississauga

2774 South Sheridan Dr., west of Winston Churchill

There can be little doubt that the citizens of southern Ontario have many concerns about the performance of governments in Ottawa over the past five decades.

The Forum will focus on identifying ways for citizens who've been disillusioned by their inability to influence the MPs they elect and pay to take back their government.

Our guest speakers will offer their views and round table discussions will consider the conditions of better government and the steps required to achieve these conditions.

The afternoon will close with discussions and a summary of indicated future action.

Politics is changing and this is your Forum to influence that change.

REGISTER EARLY and SAVE!

$99 fee until March 31.

$125 thereafter

Keynote Speaker Gerry Nicholls

Gerry Nicholls has been called a "political warrior" a "fierce defender of democracy" a "brilliant strategist" and "the brains behind the NCC". For more than 22 years, he was a senior executive and the chief creative force behind the National Citizens Coalition. While no longer with the NCC, Gerry is still speaking out loudly and clearly in defence of Canada's freedoms. His columns appear regularly in publications in Canada and the USA and he is a frequent presenter at seminars and forums put on by prestigious organizations. Gerry is a Senior Fellow with the Democracy Institute and a director with the Institute for Liberal Studies

Luncheon Speaker Jonathan Kay

Jonathan Kay is the Comment pages editor of the National Post. He is also a frequent columnist for the Post's op-ed page and a regular contributor to the most prestigious publications in Canada and the USA. In 2002 he was awarded Canada's National Newspaper Award for Critical writing and, in 2004, a National Newspaper Award for Editorial Writing. An outstanding and frequently requested public speaker, Jonathan was born in Montreal, received his BA in mechanical engineering, economics and Japanese, and his MA in Metallurgical Engineering, from McGill. He earned a law degree from Yale in 1997 and is a member of the New York bar.
